Hi Earl,

Thank you for an update on the status of the first three memos (3 of 6) that have been uploaded to the docket.

I will upload the remaining three memos tomorrow morning when I receive them from HED. Again, we do appreciate all of your help with reviewing the memos for posting to the docket.

We will let you know, if we are given a specific time tomorrow for making the docket go live.

Thank you!
Debra

Debra,

Sharon has completed the review and the Docket staff is working on getting these 3 supporting documents posted.

Please keep in mind because www.regulations.gov refreshed every 20 minutes, there could be a slight delay once the docket staff pushes the posting button. You might want to consider this when deciding when you tell us to post.

Have a nice evening and Sharon and Anthia will make sure things go as plan.

Earl

Hi Earl,

The team has not been given an exact time for completion, only the date (1/12/21). It may need to be timed around the Administrator's announcement, but no one has confirmed that (or a time) with us.

Debra,

Is there a time this is supposed to publish tomorrow?

Hi Sharon,

I just wanted to give you and your group a “heads up” that it looks like there will be three memos that will be sent for CBI review for the Docket for Aldicarb.

Unfortunately, we won’t be getting the signed memos from HED until tomorrow morning at which time I will upload them to FDMS.

We greatly appreciate your help with this action.

Thank you.

Debra
